Hotel Único Madrid, The perfect spot for an exclusive getaway

9 April 2015 CULTURE SEEKER, HIP HOTELS, ROMANTIC

Hotel Único Madrid, nestled in the heart of the Salamanca District, is the perfect spot for a different, unique getaway to Madrid. This 44-room boutique hotel is housed in a historic mansion built in the 19th century. Its elegant facade conceals an interior with noble architecture, modern rooms and suites with high ceilings and large windows, and a private garden where guests can enjoy a relaxing drink or a good book in perfect peace and quiet, sheltered by a terraced boxwood forest and the green tapestry of a hanging garden where jasmine, ivy and lavender intertwine.

The Hotel Único is strategically located in the city centre, close to the principal museums and El Retiro Park and surrounded by the best restaurants, bars and shops that Spain's capital has to offer. It literally sits in the lap of luxury, at the intersection of three streets—Serrano, Ortega y Gasset and Claudio Coello—lined with the most exclusive shops in the city.

Hotel Único Madrid is also home to the restaurant Ramón Freixa Madrid, proud owner of two Michelin stars. In addition to an à la carte menu of highly acclaimed, award-winning dishes and a wine list with over 450 choices, the restaurant offers a variety of tasting menus, all of which faithfully reflect Freixa's culinary philosophy: premium products, authentic flavours and the harmonious marriage of traditional and avant-garde cuisine. The celebrated chef also serves up The Perfect Brunch, offered every Sunday from 12:30 to 4 pm, and the hotel's daily breakfasts.

Artistic Spring in Madrid: The Exceptional Kunstmuseum Basel Collection

The exhibition of masterpieces from the collection of the Kunstmuseum Basel is undoubtedly one of the biggest events on the local and national art calendar this season.

In addition to its permanent collections, the Museo Reina Sofía is currently hosting two outstanding exhibitions of works from the Swiss gallery, White Fire (with pieces by Munch, Kandinsky, Rothko, Giacometti and other major modern artists) and Collectionism and Modernity (paintings by Impressionists and Post-Impressionists such as Renoir, Monet and Cézanne), and it will also open its doors to welcome Nafea Faa Ipoipo by Gauguin, the most expensive painting ever sold. In addition, the Prado is offering a unique chance to view 10 Picassos from the Kunstmuseum Basel.

"Discover Madrid" is a package designed by Hotel Único Madrid for guests who want to take advantage of their time in the Spanish capital to enjoy these exhibitions and discover the world-renowned museums that form Madrid's "Art Triangle": the Prado, Reina Sofía and Thyssen-Bornemisza. "Discover Madrid" includes accommodation in a Deluxe room, buffet breakfast by Ramón Freixa and tickets to the museums.

The "Golden Mile": Shoppers' Heaven

Hotel Único Madrid is the perfect place to stay for anyone who wants to enjoy shopping in the capital. The hotel offers a special "Madrid & Shopping" package which, in addition to the room and fabulous buffet breakfast created by Ramón Freixa, includes our exclusive "carefree shopping" service (to have purchases collected and delivered to the hotel), special discounts at select shops (Cartier, Dolce & Gabbana, Hackett, Tous, Lladró, etc.) and the possibility of requesting a personal shopper to make your experience even more exclusive.

Families travelling with children who are interested in this package also have the option of requesting the hotel's exclusive babysitter service.
